

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Participant Journey Coordinator

The participant journey covers all touchpoints between participants and Roverway: from registration and preparation to arrival, camp experience, departure and follow-up. As Participant Journey Coordinator, you ensure that this entire experience is clear, consistent and well organised from the participants' perspective.

You coordinate and connect different processes along the participant journey. This includes in particular the check-in and check-out process, arrival and departure coordination, as well as accreditation and badge management.

In close collaboration with other departments, you ensure that the participant journey is not only operationally smooth but also provides a positive, understandable and well-structured experience for all participants.

You will be part of the "Registration & Data" Department within the People Division.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- Approx. 4h of volunteer work per week
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasms, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- A drive to create and contribute
- Experience in event organisation, logistics or process coordination is an advantage
- Ability to think and structure complex processes from a participant-centred perspective
- Enjoyment in connecting different teams and coordinating interfaces
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
- What interests you about this project?
- Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
