

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Department Lead Support Logistic

Do you like keeping an overview, bringing order to complex topics and supporting others in finding good solutions? Then this job is exactly right for you!

As Department Lead Support Logistic, together with your Co-Department Lead, you are the central support within the Division Logistic. You work closely with the Division Leads Logistic, gather information, prepare decision-making documents and support the departments with cross-cutting tasks. In doing so, you make sure that open points are followed up and that important information is in the right place at the right time.

What you can expect:

- 1-2 meetings per month with your division
- approx. 4h of voluntary work per week
- close collaboration with your Co-Department Lead and your crew
- opportunity to contribute and further develop your know-how
- collaboration with international contacts
- expansion of your network at national and international level
- helping make an international Scout experience possible for approx. 5,000 participants and approx. 1,000 volunteers

What you bring:

- time, interest and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- organisational talent
- good German and English skills
- knowledge of additional national languages is an advantage
- skills and experience in finance are an advantage
- ability to keep an overview of a project
