

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

IT Department Member

You will be part of the Support Division. Together with your department, you will be responsible for the digital tools and systems on site, as well as during the planning phase. Among other things, the IT Department ensures that the IT infrastructure at the venue is in place, that the website and, where applicable, a programme booking app for participants, staff and crew are easy and user-friendly to use, and that a registration platform is effectively integrated with other applications such as a payment system. Furthermore, this department maintains the internal tools and monitors data security.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- A monthly meeting with your department
- Approx. 10h of volunteer work per month (with different peaks)
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Close collaboration with other divisions (esp. Finance, Communication & People)
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Solid Knowledge of IT infrastructures
- Experience in IT or a similar field
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
