

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Web Manager (Website)

Would you like to look after the Roverway website? Do you have professional experience in this field, or were you responsible for your division's website? Then you're in exactly the right place! You keep our gateway to the world – and thus to our future participants – up to date, always presenting us in the best light. As Web Manager, you're a member of the "Web Content" department within the Communication Division (see organizational chart).

What you can expect:

- Check-in as agreed with your Division Leads (approx. every 2 months)
- Approx. 2h of volunteer work per month (more from 2028 onward)
- The opportunity to contribute and further develop your know-how
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expanding your network on a national and international level
- Helping make possible an international Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Experience in web development and maintenance (CMS, HTML/CSS an advantage)
- Ability to keep an overview of a project
- English skills and/or another Swiss national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- Example(s) of your own websites
- A short motivation letter answering the following questions (an email is fine)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
