

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Department Lead Main Camp Security

As Department Lead Main Camp Security, you are a part of the Medical Service and Security Division, responsible for delivering a safe and healthy camp. Your responsibilities will include creating safety concepts for the main camp and implementing them. This means that you will be the point of contact for external safety partners like the police and the firefighters. You are also responsible for planning and organising training for your staff before, after and during camp.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- Approx. 4h of volunteer work per week
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- A drive to create and contribute
- Skills and experience as a camp leader and creating/implementing concepts
- Passion, interest and maybe experience in Safety protocols of large camps
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
