

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp consists of two parts: the Paths and a Main Camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Program Responsible Theme

As part of the Department Program Support, you will be responsible for the alignment of the program and the Camp life with the motto (Battasendas). You will make sure, that the camp is telling a coherent story and that this story gets the visibility it needs that the participants can follow it. The focus should be the ceremonies and the program of the Main Camp but should include the paths in a meaningful way.

Your work will make sure, that the different parts of the program come together to form one camp.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- Approx. 4h of volunteer work per week
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- A drive to create and contribute
- Creative ideas
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

We need the following from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
- What interests you about this project?
- Why are you the right person for this department?
- Are you interested to lead the department?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
