

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Sustainability Department Member

You will be part of the Support Division. Together with your department, you will be responsible for the Roverway 2028 sustainability strategy. You will act as the point of contact for the other divisions on matters relating to environmental sustainability and ensure that we organise a camp that is as sustainable as possible. Key tasks of the Sustainability Department will include: defining and monitoring sustainability KPIs; documenting and reporting on the achievement of these KPIs in line with the WOSM Sustainability Charter; and organising training sessions on sustainability for the crew and IST.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- A monthly meeting with your department
- Approx. 8h of volunteer work per month with different peaks
- the design and implementation of a sustainability plan for a major event
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Close collaboration with all other divisions
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 6000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Skills and experience in the field of sustainability (CSR, ESG, sustainable events or similar areas are an advantage)
- Knowledge of relevant frameworks (WOSM Sustainability Charter, SDGs, etc.) is an advantage
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
