

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Merchandise Designer

Roverway should also be a feast for the eyes when it comes to clothing. From the official Roverway tie to... well, everything else is still open. Help shape our merchandise range right from the start and inspire thousands of participants with your designs! You work closely with your colleagues from the "Visual Design" department.

What you can expect:

- Check-in as agreed with your Division Leads (approx. every 2 months)
- Approx. 8h of volunteer work per month
- Close collaboration with Division Finance (Sponsoring Department)
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expanding your network on a national and international level
- Helping make possible an international Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Experience in product design or graphic design
- Confident use of Adobe Creative Cloud (or similar tools)
- Ability to keep an overview of a project
- English skills and/or another Swiss national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short motivation letter answering the following questions (an email is fine)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Still have questions?

Feel free to reach out to us with any uncertainties, open questions, or just to chat. We look forward to you and your ideas.
