

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

People Liaison

The delegations, the participants and the International Service Team are at the heart of the Roverway, and as a Participant Liaison, you will be their point of contact and will support them both in the run-up to the camp and during it.

You will provide guidance, answer questions and help resolve challenges and special cases. Additionally, you will also represent their voice within the organising team. You will continuously ask questions such as: "Does the camp make sense from their perspective? Are the communications clear? Are the programmes and structures understandable and accessible to those we design them for?"

You will collect feedback, contribute to the development of guidelines and best practices, and work closely with other divisions to continuously improve the participant experience. Depending on your interests and experience, you will specialise in one of the following target groups:

- Delegations
- Participants (including Rover Representatives)
- IST (International Service Team)

You will be part of the "Liaison & Support" Department within the People Division.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- Approx. 4h of volunteer work per week
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiams, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- A drive to create and contribute
- Enjoy working with people from different countries and cultural backgrounds
- Strong communication and organisational skills
- Empathy and the ability to listen and understand different perspectives
- A solution-oriented mindset, even in challenging situations
- Interest in improving concepts, processes and the overall participant experience
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
- What interests you about this project?
- Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
