

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Department Lead Electricity & ICT

Are you an electrician or electrical planner and would like to use your specialist knowledge in Scouting? Or do you know how to set up and operate a stable Wi-Fi network for 6,000 users? Then this job is exactly right for you!

As Department Lead Electricity & ICT, together with your Co-Department Lead and your crew, you are responsible for the power supply as well as the communications infrastructure (Wi-Fi, mobile network, radio) at the campsite. The Department Electricity & ICT is part of the Division Logistic.

What you can expect:

- 1 meeting per month with your Division Leads
- approx. 4h of voluntary work per week
- close collaboration with your Co-Department Lead and your crew
- opportunity to contribute and further develop your know-how
- collaboration with international contacts
- expansion of your network at national and international level
- helping make an international Scout experience possible for approx. 5,000 participants and approx. 1,000 volunteers

What you bring:

- time, interest and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- drive to design and shape things
- (professional) experience in electrical planning or ICT
- ability to keep an overview of a project
- good English skills and/or skills in another national language

Have we sparked your interest?

Then we look forward to hearing from you through this form.

Do you have any questions?

Please feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have open questions or if you would like to exchange ideas. We look forward to hearing from you and to your ideas.
