

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Department Member Medical Services

As a member of the small Crisis Management department, you are a part of the Medical Service and Security Division (MSS), responsible for delivering a safe and healthy camp. You will be responsible for securing the medical care at the Main Camp. You will also establish contacts with local healthcare providers and coordinate sensible collaboration. Additionally, your role involves clarifying legal matters in conjunction with the Support Divisions Legal Department. Creating an emergency information sheet for all participants—along with a protocol for its use—also falls within your scope of responsibilities. You will work closely with the MSS Division Lead and the Main Camp Security Department.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- Approx. 2h of volunteer work per week
- The opportunity to contribute your expertise and develop your skills
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- A drive to create and contribute
- Passion, interest, and possibly experience in providing medical support for large-scale projects
- Experience in the medical sector is an advantage
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
