

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Local Affairs Manager

Roverway should also become an unforgettable event for the local community and the population. This is where we need you! You maintain the relationship between Roverway and the host municipalities. You're the point of contact for local and cantonal authorities, keeping them informed about the camp and ensuring good relations. As Local Affairs Manager, you're a member of the "Public Relations" department within the Communication Division (see organizational chart).

What you can expect:

- Check-in as agreed with your Division Leads (approx. every 4 months)
- Approx. 4h of volunteer work per month
- The opportunity to contribute and further develop your know-how
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expanding your network on a national and international level
- Helping make possible an international Scouting experience for approx. 5000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Experience dealing with authorities or in public relations
- Diplomatic skills
- Good German skills (written and spoken)

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short motivation letter answering the following questions (an email is fine)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Still have questions?

Feel free to reach out to us with any uncertainties, open questions, or just to chat. We look forward to you and your ideas.

Division Lead Communication

Fabian Rymann / Orion (DE, EN), fabian.rymann@roverway28.ch & Gregor Juon (DE, EN)

