

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Department Lead Construction

As Department Lead Construction, together with your Co-Department Lead and your crew, you are responsible for the camp structures at Roverway. This includes, among other things, planning the camp structures according to the needs of the users (e.g. other Divisions), creating plans and construction material lists as well as coordinating the setup and dismantling of the individual camp structures. The Department Construction is part of the Division Logistic.

What you can expect:

- 1 meeting per month with your Division Leads
- approx. 4h of voluntary work per week
- close collaboration with your Co-Department Lead and your crew
- opportunity to contribute and further develop your know-how
- collaboration with international contacts
- expansion of your network at national and international level
- helping make an international Scout experience possible for approx. 5,000 participants and approx. 1,000 volunteers

What you bring:

- time, interest and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- drive to design and shape things
- skills and experience in (construction) planning (professionally or in a Scouting context)
- ability to keep an overview of a project
- experience in drawing CAD plans is an advantage, but not required
- good English skills and/or skills in another national language

Have we sparked your interest?

Then we look forward to hearing from you through this form.

Do you have any questions?

Please feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have open questions or if you would like to exchange ideas. We look forward to hearing from you and to your ideas.
