

Roverway is an international Guides and Scouts camp for Rovers (aged 16 to 22) from all over Europe. The camp typically consists of two parts: the Paths, where the participants explore Switzerland in smaller groups of around 70 people, and a main camp. The last Roverway took place in Norway in 2024 and lasted eleven days. Approximately 5500 Guides and Scouts participated. The next Roverway is scheduled to take place in Switzerland in 2028. That is why we are looking for a:

Division Lead Medical Services

This division is responsible for the physical and mental wellbeing of participants and volunteers at Roverway 2028. As Division Lead, you will be responsible for coordinating, supervising and monitoring your departments. As Division Lead for Medical Services, this includes prevention (hygiene measures, substance abuse, etc.), the Listening Ears service (Safe from Harm/Safeguarding, mental health crisis prevention and support) and first aid and medical care during the camp.

What you can expect:

- A monthly meeting with your division
- A monthly meeting with your department
- Approx. 6h of volunteer work per week
- Developing the content and structure of your division
- Leading the team and coordinating around 20 volunteers
- Collaboration with international contacts (including within your division crew)
- Expansion of your network at the national and international levels
- Close collaboration with all other divisions
- Helping to create an international Guiding and Scouting experience for approx. 6000 participants and approx. 1000 volunteers

What you bring to table:

- Time, enthusiasm, and motivation for a multi-year commitment
- Skills and experience in one of the above areas would be an advantage
- Experience in team leadership and organising large-scale events would be an advantage
- A meticulous and analytical mindset
- Ability to maintain an overview of a project
- Good English skills and/or proficiency in another national language

What we need from you:

- Your resume (including your Guiding and Scouting career as well as on Guiding and Scouting reference)
- A short letter of motivation answering the following questions (an email is sufficient)
 - What interests you about this project?
 - Why are you the right person for this division?

Do you still have questions?

Feel free to contact us if anything is unclear, if you have any questions, or if you'd just like to have a casual conversation without any obligation. We look forward to hearing from you and learning about your ideas.
